Call my Bluff Wine Tasting Saturday 1st October

I guess we all remember Robert Robinson and Call My Bluff; well this is a spin off from that show.

We have our own Quiz Mistress, panellists and compere, who will tease you with the description of various wines and all you have to do is pick the correct description.

Of course to achieve this you also need to taste the wines and to help you clear your palette if not your head we are offering a complementary glass of wine at the beginning of the evening.

The evening starts at 7.30pm in the Jenner Hall. To enable you to focus on the wine-tasting, we are asking that you eat beforehand, but we will provide cheese and biscuits.

So all you need to bring is yourselves – however we would be grateful for volunteers to help set up the room from 6pm and for the odd raffle prize.

Tickets are £11.50 – please let Celia Binfield know if you are attending by the 15th September, so that we can sort out numbers and also direct tickets to members and their friends first. Please email Celia at celia.binfield@btopenworld.com or drop a note into 98 Deansfield. Please pay on the night.

Safari Supper 26th November

The social event for the end of the year will be a Safari Supper, lots of fun and a good way of getting to know other members.

The Safari Supper means meeting together and then being handed a slip of paper, which says where you are eating your starter (unless of course you are hosting that course, when you will be heading off to your own house). When you have finished your starters, it is all change and you are off somewhere else for your main course (or to your own house to act as host for the main course). We then do dessert back where we started from all together. Hosts cater for between 6 and 8 people including themselves and of course this is all agreed well in advance.

Well in advance is right now, so if you would like to host starters or a main course or if you need additional information, please contact Celia by email at celia.binfield@btopenworld.com or drop a note into 98 Deansfield. Please let Celia know if you have any special dietary requirements. Tickets will be £10 a head.

2012 Visit Bastille Day Royal Weekend

Seems that Bastille Day does not work for our French Colleagues, so we are now proposing that they visit on the Queen's Diamond Jubilee extended Bank Holiday.

That means the weekend starting 2nd June through to Tuesday the 5th June.

We will hopefully get confirmation soon and then let set set about recruiting hosts for our visitors.

Pétanque at the Bowles Club Saturday 18 June

Our thanks to all who attended and helped organise the Petanque at the Boules Club. We had to dodge the occasional shower, but I think everyone agreed that this is an excellent venue for the Boules or Petanque competition.

We will do this again next year at the same venue, but away from the Cricklade Festival, so that it doesn't clash with preparation for the festival.

Bottle Stall at Cricklade Festival Sunday 19 June

The Bottle stall we ran as part of the Cricklade festival was a great success. Thanks to David Wheeler for coordinating the day and for all those who turned up to man the stall throughout the day.

Summer BBQ Saturday 9 July

The Summer BBQ managed to avoid all the rain and so everyone was able to sit out on a fine Summer's Evening and enjoy the food and wine.

Thanks to Chris and Cathy for providing the beautiful garden and for organising the food. Thanks to everyone who brought salads and desserts.

Committee Meeting Wed 21st September

The next committee meeting is on the 21st Sept at 8pm
